FOREWORD

Each and every one of us has something that we can call our very own and that is memories. Memories aren't something that you can file away, or put under lock and key for safe keeping until you want them.---Yet there are just little things that will always bring them back. Such as, a song, a color, a picture, or perhaps a book.

That is what we hope the blue and gold will do for you. Bring back memories of school days at dear old J. L. S.! We have pictured the happenings around our school, ---the teachers, classes, clubs, and teams.

In this annual we have tried to give to you a picture of our dearest days -----"Our Senior year." -----We know that there are many, many things which must be left out, for no mere book could record the sound of the yelling at the games, the intenseness of waiting for the curtain to go up at your class play -----decorating for the proms, or the sound of music at the school dances----- but we hope that you will be able to see, hear, and remember these things while leafing through this edition of the Blue and Gold.

Editor, Joan Shaw

DEDICATION

No longer is our community the casual, carefree place we knew five years ago. The world has changed and we have changed with it . . . Longer union lines, new payroll systems, strikes, posters, and speeches have been indications of a change from peace to war and then from war to peace.

But still . . . we go to the same school and it still stands at the same place, overlooks the same walk and the same trees are still there . . . things are the same! Our actions, our words, our thoughts, are our own, not governed by a supreme dictator . . . As individuals . . . we live, with responsibilities to our country through ourselves, as a united and free people.

In memory of: John Anderson, Wallace Shaver, Thomas Wonderly, John Lindower and John Stultz, who have helped to make these things possible by giving their lives, so that others may learn to live with each other, we the class of 46, dedicate our year book.

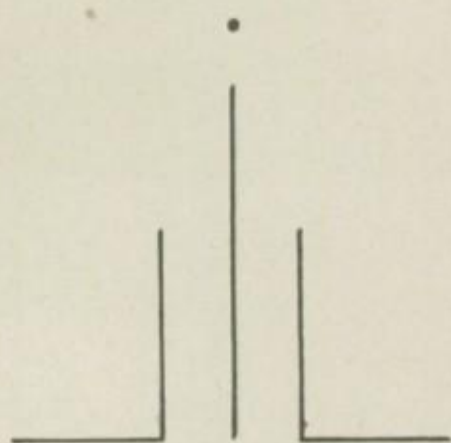

OUR SCHOOL

A builder builded a temple,
He wrought it with grace and skill;
Pillars and groins and arches
All fashioned to work his will.
Men said as they saw its beauty,
"It shall never know decay.
Great is thy skill, O builder:
Thy fame shall endure for aye."

A teacher builded a temple
With loving and infinite care,
Planning each arch with patience,
Laying each stone with prayer.
None praised her unceasing efforts
None knew of her wondrous plan,
For the temple the teacher builded
Was unseen by the eyes of man.

Gone is the builder's temple,
Crumbled into the dust;
Low lies each stately pillar,
Food for consuming rust.
But the temple the teacher builded
Will last while the ages roll,
For that beautiful unseen temple
Is a child's immortal soul.

OUR SUPERINTENDENT

In looking over the past few months of activity in Jackson-Liberty Schools, I have a feeling that we have lived together in a spirit that is wholesome for us as individuals and as a cooperative group. However, I can see plenty of room for us to improve our scholarship and our social efficiency.

When we have improved our physical plant and reorganized our courses to meet the needs of all, I shall call upon every pupil to dedicate his whole plan of life in the school and the community to the highest service of his fellows. By fulfilling that commission each student will have found himself . . . found himself in all that is satisfying to him individually and to the enrichment of his school. Let us go forward!

OUR PRINCIPAL

Seniors, twelve long years I have watched you grow, develop, and now you are to blossom forth as a graduate of dear old Jackson-Liberty. While you were with us, you were constantly writing a story, the outline of which is contained on one folder which shall be forever on file in the office of this institution, and the details of the story recorded in the minds of those of us who were your fellow workers. That story is filled with deeds and actions, some of triumph, some of defeat, but none of which can ever be changed in the written story. So let's turn our back to the past and face the future.

There are three great decisions you have made or will make. They are as follows: What shall I do with my God? Whom shall I choose to be my partner in life? What shall be my vocation? How well you answer these three questions will in a large measure determine how successful will be the remaining chapters of your life. . . . Your principal wishes you much success. . . . Your Alma Mater stands ever ready to help you. I look to your future with high hopes.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

PRESIDENTHarold Ecker

No where in all the land does a boy or girl have the opportunity to gain a good education as does he in the United States of America. This did not just happen. The fight to gain our system of free education was a long one. First the free elementary school, then the grammar school, followed by the high school, and this followed by the free state universities. There had to be many champions of the cause of education.

That work is now being carried on in a large measure by our Boards of Education. If you want to find a community in which education is on the march, you search for a community where good men will serve on the Board of Education. Men who have the good of all the community at heart. In rendering decisions the good Board member considers all angles — the pupil — the parent — the teacher—the janitor—the bus driver—the administration—the taxpayer and then decides in the light of what is best for all. The one who is so willing to advise what is good for education in a community too often sees only one angle of the situation and forms his opinion accordingly. We at Jackson-Liberty are fortunate in that we have good men who are willing to be the guardians of our schools.

Board Members: We appreciate your good work and wish you much happiness in carrying on your important obligation.

He sits there idle in his seat, and thinks of many a thing.
Of how he'll miss the old school house,
around about next spring.
Maybe the lessons were boring and maybe the teachers were mean.
But I'll bet he wouldn't give a million for the fun on the basketball team.
Those times he loafed in the study hall,
when he should have been getting
math,
Those noons he walked with his best girl
around the old race track.
The thoughts like these race through his mind, like a feather in the breeze.
But others linger on and stop with the abruptness of a sneeze.

These thoughts are . . . I am leaving this school now for good,
I won't be back, to walk that path, or take that hike to the wood.
They hurt and you boys know it, although you'd never admit it to us,
You say you'd like to graduate without
a great big fuss,
That's what is going through his mind,
on these last few days at school
So why not make the best of things, that's what life is for,
Instead of waiting till it's past and wishing you had more.

SENIOR HISTORY

Yes, the class of '46 has really made history. It all began in the year 1934 when we began our school career. The first eight years of school seem to have gone unbelievably fast.

The year 1942 saw twenty-six meek little freshmen climb meekly up the steps of old Jackson . . . eager for knowledge, after a few (?) cracks of the upper classmen's paddles we were finally under way.

We had a very successful year under the guidance of Miss Casper. We chose the following officers: President, Orton Sours; Vice President, Joyce Good; Secretary, Joan Shaw; Treasurer, Joan Waltermier; and Student Council Representative, Carolyn Grove.

We were well represented in every organization. Basketball was the favorite sport. George Stull, Francis Burns and Clyde Shaul went out for basketball. Joan Waltermier represented us on the Newshound Staff.

With a few more additions and subtractions we skipped to our Sophomore year. We started the year off with a "bang" by electing the following officers: President, Donald Russell; Vice president, Clayton Myers; Secretary, Ernest Dicken; Treasurer, Mildred Hartley; Student Council Representative, Joan Waltermier.

With the Sophomore year came more activities. Joan Waltermier, Joan Shaw, and Carolyn Grove and Don Russell were in the Student Council play called "Little Women." John Wonderly represented the Sophomores in the One-Act play. Carolyn Grove and Joan Waltermier were on the debate team. Joyce Good was in the Girls Trio. Francis Burns was now one of the first five in basketball. Joan Shaw was one of the cheerleaders.

The fall of '44 found us as Jolly Juniors. Our officers were: President, Joyce Good; Vice President, Clayton Myers; Secretary, Joan Shaw; Treasurer, Alma Scherger; Student Council Representative, Donald Russell. One of the highlights of our Junior year was our class play . . . "In the Doghouse." Those who took part in it were: Joan Waltermier, Orton Sours, Joan Shaw, John Wonderly, Joan Kimmet, Ernest Dicken, Alma Scherger, Mildred Hartley, Don Russell, Carolyn Grove, and Clayton Myers. Those in the Student Council play were: Don Russell, Carolyn Grove and Joan Waltermier. Those in the One-Act play were: Joan Shaw, Joan Waltermier and Don Russell.

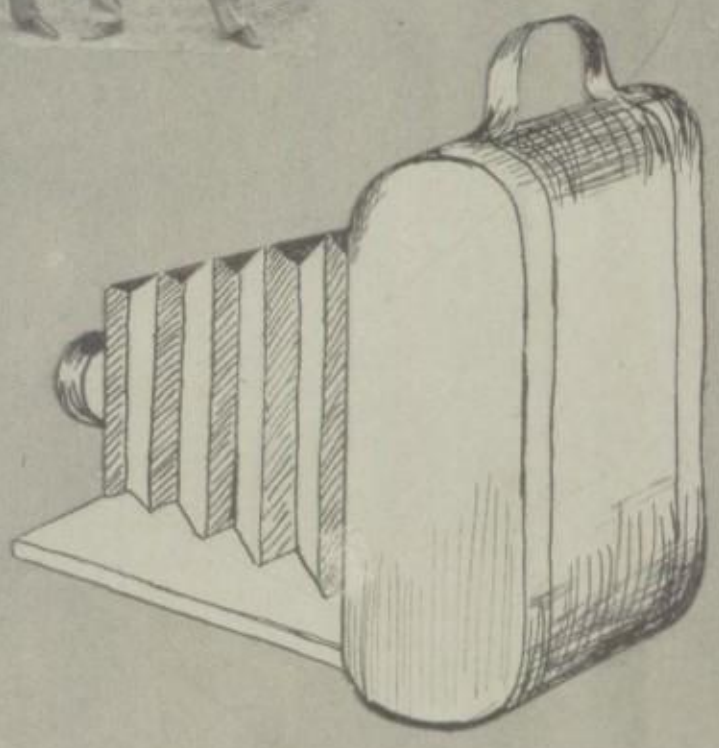

We were fortunate to have three Juniors on the first five—Francis Burns, Clayton Myers and Don Russell. Ernest Dicken was on the reserve team. This year Joyce Good and Joan Shaw were two of our cheerleaders.

A few of us received high enough grades to be on the Honor Society. They were: Clayton Myers, Don Russell, Orton Sours, Joan Waltermier, Joan Shaw, Joyce Good, Joan Kimmet, Carolyn Grove and John Wonderly.

Now for the last round of our high school career. We are now seventeen sophisticated Seniors. This seemed to be our busy year. Our very capable officers this year were: President, Joyce Good; Vice President, Alma Scherger; Secretary, Ernest Dicken; Treasurer, Don Russell; and Student Council Representative, Clayton Myers.

Joan Shaw won Honors in the local and county and district Prince of Peace Contest. Joan Shaw and Alma Scherger were in the One-Act play which went to the state contest. Don Russell was captain of the basketball team this year.

JUNIORS

THIRD ROW: Doyle Baker, Raymond Stewart, John Cannavan, Kathleen Haughn, Mrs. Cannavan, Dorothy Hatfield, Wanda Snyder.

SEATED: Hazel Stark, Zella Purtee, Phyllis Lanning, Ruth Ann Fish, Olive Smith, Geraldine Ritter, Betty Wildman, Marjorie Hollenbaugh, Lois Boyd.

The fall of '45' found us back at the old meeting place, the school building. We have been pretty active this year. Our Junior Class Play went over big and we went out for bigger things. We had to build up our treasury from practically nothing to give the prom for the seniors. We gave them a very nice one, too. We sold Christmas cards, ice cream at noons, and concessions at the basketball games.

The Juniors made a pretty good showing in the Big Five this year. We had a cheerleader this year, too. Two of our members were in the winning play cast which places us out in front for dramatics. The "Brown Derby" also proved quite interesting to the juniors.

We have two new class members which increases our number to twenty-three. They are Lola Saalman and Esther Baker.

Next year you'll see us as the "Dignified Seniors."

SEATED: Mary Few, Lavina Filliater, Garland Peeler, Bernice Frankart, Beatrice Frankart, Kathleen Wonderly, Irene Meszaros, Mary Jane Ingram, Eva Jean Russell.

This year proved to be a very eventful one for the sophomore class. Basketball was the most favored sport, while baseball seemed to be a close runner-up. The class was quite proud of Jack Weissinger as he was recognized as one of the first five on the varsity team. Mack Lanning, Dale Yoder, Dick Sigler, Dick Sour, and Charles Russell helped to make the varsity team, and played along with the first five in the tournament. Kathleen Wonderly served as one of our cheerleaders this year, also.

We were well represented in the different organizations of the school, such as, G.R., F.F.A., F.H.A., and Hi-Y.

Our class had representatives in the music contest, operetta, Student Council Play, One Act Plays, and the Prince of Peace Contest.

Kyle Bigham went to Bluffton, to compete in the district contest, with his Prince of Peace Declamation.

Miss Yarian was our advisor. We must admit we had a good time as "Snappy Sophomores" so we are looking forward to becoming those "Jolly Juniors."

Our high school career began in September when we entered Jackson-Liberty High School as green but not timid Freshmen.

The upper classmen decided soon after school had started that it was time we were initiated into the ways of high school life. So they set two days, in September, for initiation to make certain our school year was properly started.

We have played a fairly large part in this year's activities. Those taking part in basketball were: Jim Stull, Charles Hatfield, Mead Smith, David Hill, Loren Stumpp, Nathan Cowell, and Don Ecker.

In the Prince of Peace contest we were represented by six people of which Wanda Omwake placed first and Donald Ecker second in the local contests. Vondale Swaisgood and Wanda Omwake had parts in the Student Council Play. Mead Smith, Kathleen Coleman, Ellen Siegler, Beverly Sour and Jim Stull, took part in the music contest.

We appreciate the guidance of Mrs. Noderer, our advisor, who was a great help throughout the year.

We'll greet you next year as the "Snappy Sophomores."

Time, time, time, that is what was needed during the mad rush just before the Blue and Gold left for Grays! !

Did you say you wanted a job? ? ? Well you were welcome to work for the annual staff! All that you had to do was to say the word and you were hired!

It seemed as if the key words of the Senior class were . . . want to buy an ad, or did you buy your annual yet? . . . If you haven't, see Joyce Good or Orton Sours . . . On and on it went, but not a one of us would have changed it for the world! !

Didn't you notice the date, Jack? Your report was due last Friday! I'm sorry, Joan, I'll have it in tomorrow morning. Here, Miss Yarian, can you read these in your spare moments? Hurry with the stencil, Margaret, so Joyce and Dorothy can work on it. Has it been proofread? Not yet? Well, Hurry! Quick! Carolyn, put the stencil on the mimeograph! Will it be out on time? Well, who could tell? What a day! What a week! What a time! . . . But what else could be expected, the News-hound was out on time, wasn't it?

Yes, this is one of the typical conversations held during the printing of the News-hound. Even during the many confusing periods it seems as though the staff has experienced a very successful year.

This year in the meetings of the Student Council there seemed to be an unusual amount of discussion. It was up to the Council to help solve the difficult problems of the year.

The first activity the Council sponsored was an assembly program for the purpose of electing cheerleaders.

The Student Council had the responsibility of decorating the school for the Christmas season. They used the traditional color scheme of green and red. The study hall was gaily decorated, and a large beautiful tree was decorated and placed in the rear of the Study Hall. A large lighted tree was also placed in the entrance of the building.

The Student Council sponsored the Semi-formal Valentine dance. The dance was held in the gym and it was decorated with large Red and White hearts and Red and White streamers.

The all school play "Old Doc" sponsored by the Council was to be held on March 22, but due to injury of two leading characters was postponed until March 29.

All in all, we think this has proved to be a very profitable year for the Student Council.

Jackson-Liberty had a membership of eighteen in the Seneca County Honor Society. The Honor Society was introduced into our school as a club in 1937. Eleven people were members of the 1937 club.

To become a member of the County Honor Society a student must have certain qualifications, as follows:

Section I. No student shall be elected to membership in the Honor Society who has not been duly recommended for election by his High School Principal, by and with the advice and consent of his school teaching staff, or by a four-fifths vote of said High school teaching staff.

Section II. No student shall be recommended, or elected to membership in the Honor Society who has not for the previous semester received an average grade of B, with one of the grades being A and no grade

Section III. No student shall be recommended or elected to the Honor Society who does not at all times manifest a proper school spirit, and conduct himself at all times both in and out of school, as becomes one worthy of honorable mention.

Section IV. No student shall be recommended or elected to membership in the High School Honor Society who does not attend school regularly or whose absence and tardiness is unexcused.

Section V. Any member of the Honor Society may be expelled from membership and his certificate revoked by the council at any time upon satisfactory evidence of failure to maintain the required academic standing or the proper school attitude. Two-thirds of those present are required for expulsion.

After many difficulties, and even a postponement, we finally put on the play, which really was a swell play. If you don't believe me, ask anyone who saw it. One minute the cast would make you laugh, and the next minute they would make you wipe the tears from your eyes.

ONE ACT PLAY

Joan Shaw, John Cannavan, Kyle Bigham, Alma Scherger, Ruth Ann Fish.

MOONCALF MUGFORD

Once again the One Act Play made a fine showing for itself. They won the Local, County, District Contests, and even journeyed to the State, where they received a superior rating and made a very good showing for themselves. Wonderful work, kids.

PRINCE OF PEACE

Of these people who entered the Prince of Peace Contest, two succeeded in bringing back honors for themselves and the school. Kyle Bigham won the silver medal in the County Contest, and Joan Shaw won the gold medal in the District. Swell work, don't you think?

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

Ten of our F. F. A. boys entered the Parliamentary Procedure Contest this year, and made a very good showing for themselves. They received the gold medal and scored 90 points, which was the best in the county. More power to you boys.

MUSIC CONTESTANTS

This year we had a very good representation of students entering the music contest. The largest representation, that Jackson has had for some years.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The Christmas program of our high-school was a very beautiful and impressive program. It was under the direction of Mrs. P. D. Cannavan and Mrs. Marguerite Noderer. Program for the intermission was given by the piano students of Catherine Barnes.

Part I. The program was entitled The Annunciation. There was a solo by Theresa Brickner. The Angel Gabriel was given by the Choral Speech Group.

Part II. The Nativity began with the scripture reading which was read by Wanda Omwake. There was more music by the music department and Joan Waltermier sang "Oh Holy Night." The Coventry Carol, The Christ Child, Gates and Doors were all given by the Choral Speech Group.

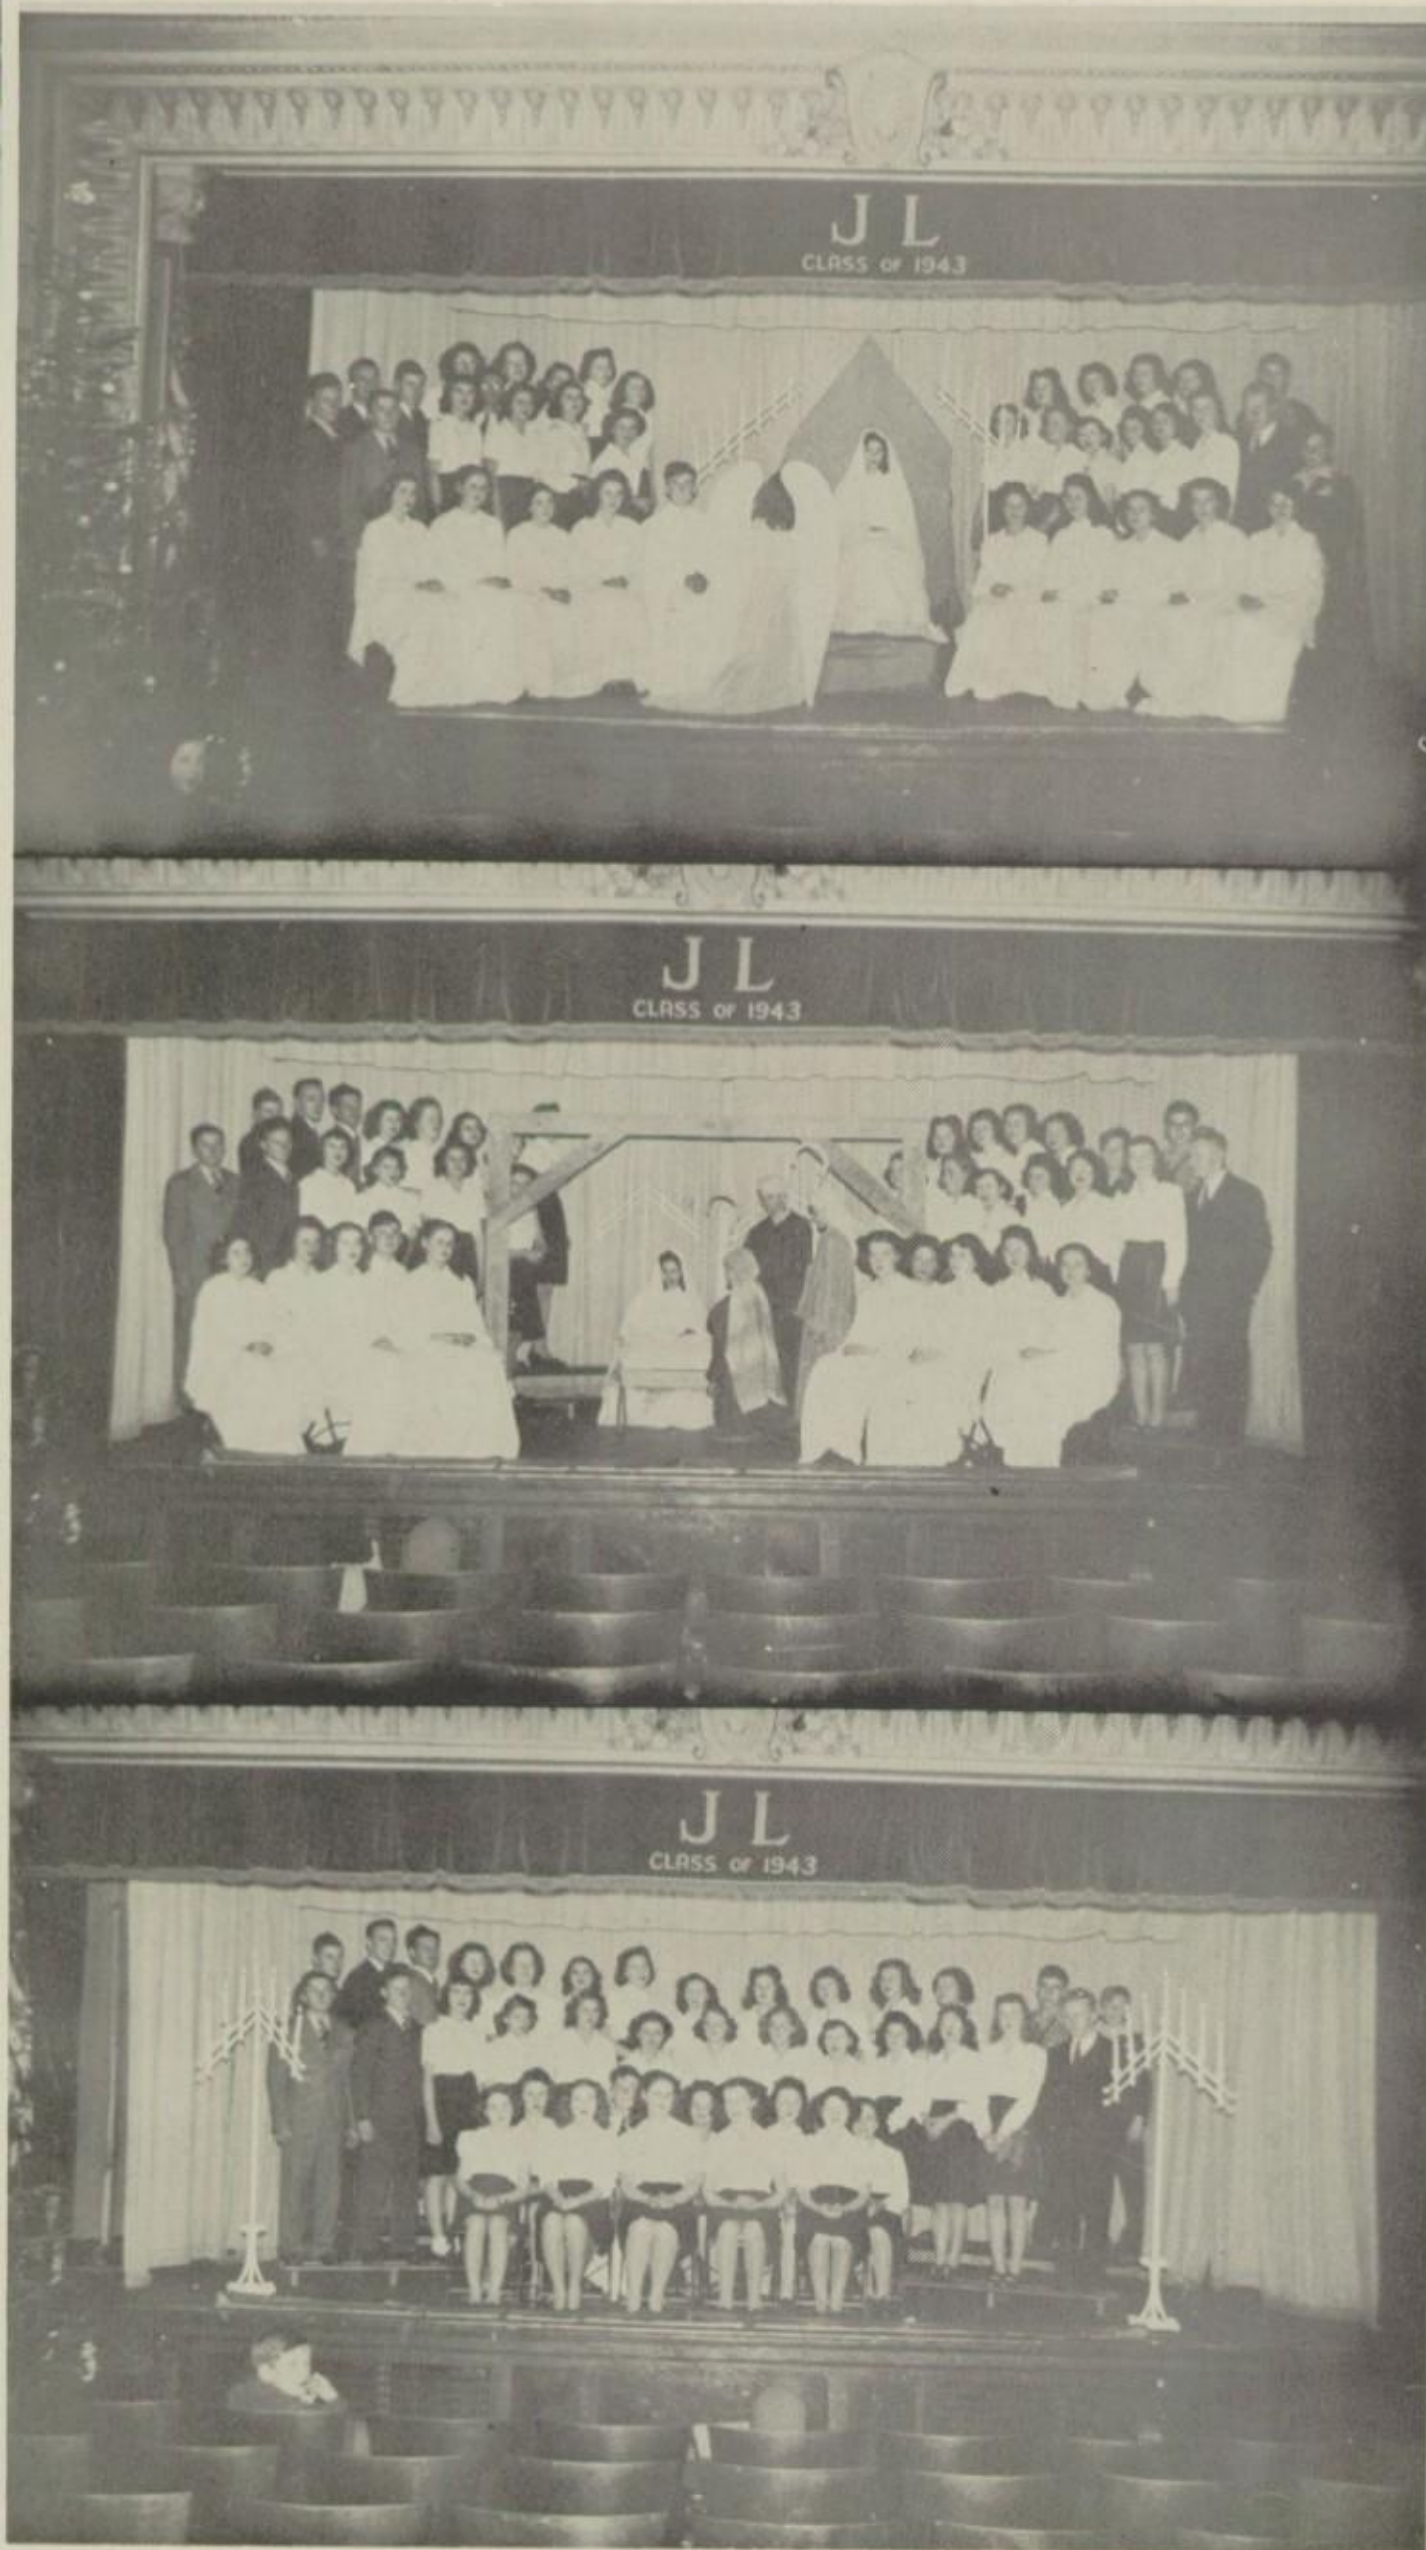

Part III. There'll Always Be A Christmas—There was a duet "White Christmas" sung by Wanda Snyder and Ruth Ann Fish. The Welsh Carol, Christmas Time is Coming Round, Jingle Bells, and Ring Out The Old were all given by the Choral Speech Group.

The program was concluded with the singing of "Joy To The World."

The beautiful lighting effects and Candelabra added to the beauty of the program.

When the program started the lighting was an off shade of red—they then turned to blue, then they were dimmed down to a deep purple. The program ended with the lights a brilliant gold to signify the coming of the Lord.

All properties for the scenes were made by Donald Ecker. Lighting was done by Robert Lanning.

OPERETTA

The music department chose for their operetta this year, "Ask the Professor." This operetta was very colorful and impressive. The story was centered around the life on a college campus. The operetta was presented under the direction of Mrs. Noderer on April 25.

The characters were as follows:

Emily LeeOlive Smith
Maryida O'NealJoyce Good
Prof. Will BreakeasyKyle Bigham

This is Mr. Brickers third year of coaching at Jackson-Liberty. It seemed as if he always had a stick of gum handy for his players when it came time for a game. He really knew his basketball and we wish him the best of luck in coaching for years to come.

Our reserve team could easily be called a rugged bunch! They always were fighting together and showed great possibilities for many successful games in the future.

Our Athletic Board consisted of three of our very capable teachers, Mr. Cannavan, Mr. Bricker and Mr. Shaw.

The Basketball Managers this year were Kyle Bigham and John Brickner.

VARSIITY

Pep Song

So here's to dear old Jackson,
Faithful and true.
Here's to our colors
Of the gold and blue.
Here's to all the players
On the fighting squad,
Fighting our battles of
Old Jackson High

Captain Don Russell, Senior, Guard. Don played the backboard well. Always in there on defense and kept his man well checked.

Clayton Myers, Senior, Guard. This is Myers' second year on the first five. He played the backboard well and leaves a place hard to fill.

John Canavan, Junior, Center. This is John's first year with us and he made a good center for our team. He played fast ball and was a good ball handler.

Doyle Baker, Junior, Forward. We will count on him for many points next year as he was high point man. He was very dependable and played a good game of basketball.

Jack Weissinger, Sophomore, Forward. We are counting on Jack for his next two years. His shooting ability will be a great aid to the teams to come.

Raymond Steward, Junior, Guard. Played in absence of one of guards. He played good ball on defense and offense. He has a good outlook for next year.

Charles Russell, Sophomore, Forward. Played as substitute for center in varsity games. We are expecting very much from him in his next two years.

Dick Sigler, Sophomore, Forward. Played as a substitute. This is his second year with the first ten. He is a fast player and a very good ball handler.

Dick Sour, Sophomore, Forward. The small man of our first ten. Despite his size, he was a very good ball handler and a good shooter.

Buck Yoder, Sophomore, Guard. He played a good substitute for offense or defense. Made a lot of points for the Reserve.

CHEERLEADERS

In the fall of "45" our school held an election for cheerleaders. There were four girls chosen and we must say by a great majority. The girls were Joan Shaw, Joyce Good, Phyllis Lanning, and Kathleen Wonderly. Joan Shaw a senior, has served as a very dependable cheerleader for three years. Joyce Good, a senior and Phyllis Lanning a Junior have served with Joan for two years. This is Kathleen Wonderly's first year of cheering and she proved very capable. We are all very proud of our cheerleaders and the way they were right in there for their team at all times.

SCHOOL SONG

Oh! come ye faithful students raise
The name of Jackson High in praise
As we laud her to the skies,
We'll seek the faith that never dies.

Though we win or lose a game,
Our hearts will always sing her name.
As the coming years go by,
We'll all be true to Jackson High.
